Railways Request 200% Rate Boost

Transport Board Urged To Take Quick Action

By John Leblanc
OTTAWA, Dec. 8.—(CP)—The railways served notice on the board of transport commissioners yesterday that they want an early 200-per-cent increase in freight rates in stead of leaving that issue for the general rate inquiry.

The move came in the form of a Transport Commissioners' Board of Inquiry report on the board of transport commissioners yesterday that they want an early 200-per-cent increase in freight rates in stead of leaving that issue for the general rate inquiry.

The day brought these developments: The railways, which previously had asked for a 15-per-cent rate increase to be followed by a 100-per-cent jump, asked now that the 200-per-cent rate increase be made immediately after hearing of the 15-per-cent rate. Earlier, the railways had agreed to let the question of the larger boost be included in the board's general rate inquiry.

A 2.8 suggestion from British Columbia asked that the board might use Maritime as a basis for lowering British Columbia rates.

Asac Reduction

In the B.C. application, the province is asking that the "mountain differential rate" for some freight hauls over the Rockies be reduced to that of the prairie level. The mountain rate is 1-1/2 times that of the prairie.

Paved Northern Highway Urged

the proposed route via Whitecourt to Valcartier.

Swamp land and muskox were problems encountered along both routes, the commissioner said. For good, permanent highway construction road base must be four feet above the water line at all times.

The Lesser Slave road had never been built to specification, he said. It would probably be necessary to move the highway back from the lake shore to higher ground in many places.

As to the proposed hard-surfaced highway by way of Whitecourt he expressed the opinion such a road could not be built for less than $100,000 per mile. Cost of hard-surfaced roads on the prairies is around $20,000 a mile.

Mr. Frame said that in his opinion a thorough inspection should be made of soil conditions and other factors before a final location of the road is made. Gravel surveys are also important, he said.

Such surveys should be made only in summer.

In reply to a question from Mr. Winspear, Mr. Frame said $38,000 would be allowed for the gravel and road by the province last year. But he had no idea how much would be spent on the road.

For a while Tuesday delegates from the 12th Army Group, who are with two camps with the army, were pulling just as hard for the Whitecourt route.

Unanimity was achieved after Mr. Winspear made his suggestion that the 12th Army Group, who are with two camps with the army, were pulling just as hard for the Whitecourt route.

CCF-Capitalist Link Seen by LPP Official

REGINA, Dec. 8.—(CP)—The alliance of CCF leaders with big business in the cold war against Soviet Russia is plain in the actions of Saskatchewan's premier T. C. Douglas, a national officer of the Labor Progressive Party.

The CCF's last night, Douglas said, was a link between the CCF and big business.

In an interview Stanley B. Ryerson, organizational secretary, said he was "convinced that the majority of CCF supporters not only desire peace but are beginning to question the St. Laurent policy of preparing for war at the behest of Washington."

Mr. Ryerson said it was "all the more shameful that Douglas should endorse policies of President Truman, Prime Minister St. Laurent and George Drew, the Conservative leader, "tying the CCF to a tripartite policy inspired and directed by big business."

Mr. Douglas had, he charged, been sitting with enemies of socialism in matters of foreign policy in the House of Commons. He said Douglas was "tying the CCF to a tripartite policy inspired and directed by big business."

Commenting on the Monday failure arising between Mr. Drew and George Temple, CCF member of the Ontario legislature, Mr. Ryerson said: "It is characteristic of Drew that his Tory soul can only express its self in dominating and slandering it is to be hoped that the Carleton voters will draw the proper conclusions and defeat him."

EDMONTON OIL FOR WEST COAST

VANCOUVER, Dec. 8.—(CP)—Motors in British Columbia soon may be using gasoline and oil from Alberta in their automobiles.

The Imperial Oil Co. announced Tuesday that it will start "reduced crude" from plants at Leduc, 30 miles south of Edmonton, to their refinery at Port Arthur.

A spokesman said the crude will be refined and put in the British Columbia market to replace some supplies now coming from California.

Route Comes Here If Need Is Shown

Following a long-drawn-out battle as the part of the Chamber of Commerce and civic officials, TCA has recently stated the company is prepared to institute daily service between Winnipeg and Vancouver by way of Edmonton if "Traffic requirements as a result of the survey indicate the need, the company will have North Star aircraft operating between Winnipeg and Vancouver through Edmonton on May 1 or at latest June 1 of 1947."

R. M. MOORE

... Heads committee of the survey indicate the need, the company will have North Star aircraft operating between Winnipeg and Vancouver through Edmonton on May 1 or at latest June 1 of 1947."

Members of the chamber aviation committee headed by R. M. "Dixie" Moore, have stated they will not be bound by TCA's interpretation of the survey and are prepared to report to the Transportation Commissioners if TCA declines against the direct service to Vancouver.

NO SHUTTLE SERVICE

"The chamber wants no part of a shuttle service and will battle against it," executive secretary Don McKay of Edmonton Chamber of Commerce said today.

"We have a growing city of 125,000 and direct transcontinental air service is an absolute necessity for our oilmen and other businessmen," he added.

TCA officials have never stated definitely that they would consider a reasonable number of passengers per trip but did mention 35 at one stage of the discussions.

Edmonton has one of the finest airports on the continent and weather conditions here are far better than at many other cities on the present transcontinental route, it was pointed out.

ARE FORCED HERE

Attention was drawn to the fact that only last Friday, Calgary and Lethbridge airports were "closed" and North Star planes from Vancouver had to land in Edmonton.

Monday the eastbound North Star from Vancouver also landed in Edmonton, because of bad visibility in the south.

"Edmonton can guarantee almost perfect year-round weather conditions," Mr. McKay stated.

Truck Deal Leads To Year in Jail

Sentenced to one year in Port Kutchikan Jail in police court today was Samuel Richard Johnson who pleaded guilty to two charges of false pretences.

In April, 1947, Johnson turned a Dodge truck over to used-car lot operator Gordon Parsons of Edmonton, for sale.

When the vehicle had been sold Parsons first gave Johnson a payment of $100 and at a later date a second payment of $500.

Accused admitted that at no time had he revealed to Parsons there was an unsatisfactory condition sales agreement against the truck.

He was sentenced to one year on each of two offences—terms to run concurrently.

Another city man, Henry Bolton Reid, received two fines for traffic offences and was remanded for a week on an assault charge.

Reid was ordered to pay $15 for failing to keep to the right and one dollar for failing to carry a driver's license. Remand on the assault charge was granted after City Prosecutor Donald Mason explained the complaint was in hospital.

Remand for two days to allow him an opportunity to make re-situation for a worthless cheque.

GAME TRAPPERS IN JASPER PLACE

Traps are being set to catch small game in Jasper Place, according to a city woman who reported to police today that her dog came home Tuesday with a trap attached to its leg.

She is Mrs. W. May, 1022 142 street, whose springer spaniel was missing for two days prior to turning up with the trap.

Police are investigating.

Police Warn Forgetful Shoppers

A warning to Christmas shoppers to be cautious in handling parcels and money was issued today by city police.

"This time of year we begin to get flooded with reports that people leave their purses on a counter and then find them missing a few seconds later," detectives said.

One such case was reported to police today by Mrs. M. Allison of 7330 111 avenue, who said she had left her purse on a counter in a downtown store and when she turned around to pick it up, it was gone.

The purse contained $100 in cash.

Police are also warning shoppers who leave parcels in cars.

Vergil Korth is the new president of the Parkland Community League, succeeding K. C. Sivertsen, who had held the office for four years.

Three officers elected for membership at large were Jack McKenna, Albert Carron and M. Sager. Representing Parkland Community at the Federation of Community Leagues will be K. C. Sivertsen, Vergil Korth, G. Le Feuvre and Albert Carron.

Alberta Farmers Advised To Keep Hog Output Up

It would be a "serious mistake" for Alberta farmers to reduce their production of hogs because of the lower volume contract with Great Britain, Hon. David A. Ure, Alberta minister of agriculture warned today.

He was commenting on a statement from Ottawa today by Rt. Hon. James G. Gardiner, federal minister of agriculture, that the Canadian contract with the United Kingdom for pork will be reduced by 35,000,000 pounds.

SIZE SURPRISE

A reduction in the size of the contract had been anticipated, but the 35,000,000 pounds drop was much more severe than had been expected, Mr. Ure said.

Heavy demands for hogs and breeding stock in Alberta had indicated a swing toward increased production, but the minister emphasized that the reduction of an average market of this type "stresses more than ever the importance of maintaining and improving the quality of our hog production."

He saw a hope for Canadian producers to share in the American market, which is now demanding more bacon-type hogs as contrasted with the heavier type of animal.

PLEASED PRICE STEADY

Though volume has been reduced, Mr. Ure found it gratifying that price had been maintained for the 160,000,000 pounds to be exported.

OPEN DOORS ARE INVITING

Patrolling constables had a busy night Tuesday locking doors that had been left open.

Five such cases were handled, one of which was reported by a constable who found four doors unlocked in the East End of the city.

Nothing was reported missing from any of the premises.

B.C. to Study Alberta Vote

British Columbia may be adopting Alberta's system of proportional representation for its provincial elections.

P. Hurley, chief electoral officer for the coast province will be conferring on Thursday with R. A. Andison, who occupies the same post in the Alberta government.

He will be investigating the workings of the proportional representation system as employed in this province's multiple member ridings and the single transferable vote used in single-member rural constituencies.

Alberta and Manitoba are the only two Canadian provinces making use of the preferential ballot, which uses numbers instead of the X to indicate the voter's choice.

Federal election officers have already explored Alberta's system.

THAT PARKA isn't part of the 'propa' for this picture, it's really odd. "Weatherman" Ven Vail of the Dominion Weather Office at Municipal Affairs looks again to read 21 below zero. And that's not all, because he says there's more to come.

IT'S LOVE AND IT'S LOVELY Deanna Durbin and handsome Dick Haymes, a happy two-some in Universal-International's "Up in Central Park," the motion picture version of the highly successful Broadway play. Deanna portrays a young Irish immigrant and Dick a crusading young reporter in the much-talked-about production, which opens at the Rialto Theatre today.

Inside Hollywood

By Bob Thomas

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 8.—(AP)—Rangy Gene Barden glanced toward first base, then coked his leg in the air and buried a stinging ball toward home plate.

It was just like his big league stuff.

—except that the grandstand of the Hollywood Baseball Park was empty and the batter was Jimmy Stewart, doing an imitation of one-legged Monty Stirling. Also, the camera was turning.

LACONIC TALKER

After the scene was shot, I buttonholed Barden, the pride of Cleveland Indiana. A tall, husky built man, he has the rugged good looks of a Burt Lancaster. Like many sports figures, he's a laconic talker, but I found out a few facts by posing questions at him.

Has he ever acted before? "Yes, I was in a few plays in high school. Nothing since then." First time around a movie lot? "Naw, I worked as a rigger at Fox back in '45. I was playing for Oakland then."

Any other film jobs in the wind? "Yeah, I'm going to do 'And Baby Make Three' with Donald O'Connor. I play a campus football hero or something." Would he like a movie career? "Sure. It looks like easy work. And you can't play baseball forever."

GOOD ACTOR

I asked director Sam Wood about Gene's acting.

"He looks very good on the screen," he answered. "He looks as Red Grange did. I directed Red in his first picture and he could have been a star. But he found out he could make more money playing pro football."

Wood also directed Babe Ruth, Bill Dickey and others in "Pride

Large Venezuela Arms Cache Found

CARACAS, Venezuela, Dec. 8.—(AP)—Army officials said yesterday they have found a large store of arms and ammunition in Cumana and arrested several leaders of the Democratic Action party there. The party and its leaders dominated Venezuela before the Nov. 24 revolt, which overthrew President Romulo Betancourt.

Delayed Mercy Flight Brings Out Trapper

WINNIPEG, Dec. 8.—(CP)—A mercy flight into Manitoba bush country 240 miles northeast of Winnipeg, delayed by bad weather since Saturday, was completed successfully yesterday when an injured white trapper was brought back to civilization for medical treatment.

In good condition at nearby St. Boniface, Man., hospital today is Thomas Boulanger, 40, who suffered a hand injury on his trapline nine days ago.

Boulanger was picked up yesterday afternoon from his camp on Charron Lake by a Central Norwest Airlines plane piloted by Jack McDonald of Winnipeg. The Waco aircraft took off from Winnipeg yesterday morning, landed to take on ski at Lac Du Bonnet, Man., 18 miles northeast of here, and continued on to Charron Lake. Bucking heavy snow squalls, the plane landed on ice over the lake and completed in four hours the 340-mile round-trip back to Lac Du Bonnet with the injured trapper.

Durbin, Haymes In Pleasing Hit

Up In Central Park Packed With Delight

An eye-and-ear-pleasing musical in the motion picture "Up in Central Park," which opens at the Rialto Theatre today.

Made from the long-run Broadway stage hit, it is big-time entertainment carried through in a big way by its stars Deanna Durbin, Dick Haymes and Vincent Price.

Packed with good music and singing, with a more creditable story than most musicals, the picture is an unalloyed delight from the opening to the final fadeout.

The film tells the story of Deanna Durbin's arrival in New York from Ireland with her father, played by Albert Sharpe. They fall in love with a politician—husband Ross Tweed, portrayed by Vincent Price. The Ross can appreciate beauty when he sees it in the voice and face of the young collier.

NEWSROUND

Dick Haymes in the role of a crusading young reporter and the Ross become rivals for Miss Durbin's affections, and securing the support of the girl's father he exposes the corrupt nature of the Tweed political machine.

Deanna Durbin sparkles brightly in the picture as the ingenue, in addition to other numbers, she sings the operatic selection, "Pace Pace, Die Mio" from Verdi which gives full range to her increasing vocal talents.

FAITHFUL REPLICAS

When Dick Haymes sings "When She Walks in the Room," a replica of the famous old Central Park Casino is seen, faithful in every detail.

Deanna and Dick sing a duet, "Comes in the Dark," accompanied by a 30-voice children's choir and a Chinese orchestra.

"Up in Central Park" is a picture all movie-goers will enjoy.

MacDONALD SHOULD FIGHT HIM ON BOAT

VANCOUVER, Dec. 8.—(CP)—Ray Wouters, a man who can take a lot of battering in a boat, bowed to the baffling of the briny in a recent "test" trip.

The pugilist, who meets Roddy MacDonald of Edmonton here Dec. 16, took a boat to Vancouver Island for relaxation after his victory over Billy Corbett of Spokane, Wash.

"From the time I step on that boat until we land I'm sicker than a dog," Wouters confessed. He returned by plane.

MacDonald planned to leave for the coast city early Wed morning.

JOE WALCOTT Next in line?

JOE MAXIN — Bobs Bivins.

Maxim Cops Split Nod Over Bivins

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 8.—(AP)—Jabbing Joe Maxim left-handed his way to a 10-round split decision over Jimmy Bivins Tuesday night and advanced several notches in the scrambled heavyweight picture. Maxim weighed 182, Bivins 175.

By his victory the handsome Clevelander earned a probable bout with Jersey Joe Walcott here Jan. 12.

Both judges cast their ballots for Maxim but referee Jackie Davis, who several times found it necessary to urge both men to fight, voted for Bivins. The victory was a logical one with the near-capricious crowd of 11,641.

The bout was marred by a lot of clinching and each fighter had a round taken away for low punching.

Maxim kept Bivins completely bewildered with his left jab and hooks. Maxim's best rounds were the seventh, eighth and tenth. In all three he beat Bivins to the punch and connected with hurt jabs and hooks.

Bivins opened a small cut below Maxim's right eye in the sixth, but it bled only slightly and Maxim protected it well for the rest of the distance.

UNWILLING PUPIL

Maxim, managed by Jack Kearns, costume manager by Jack Dempsey, lost a decision in Bivins' back in 1942, his second in professional boxing, but last night he was the boxing master and Bivins was the unwilling pupil.

Italy's Basic Food Workers Strike

ROME, Dec. 8.—(AP)—Fifty thousand millers, macaroni makers and rice workers struck for more pay yesterday, imperiling supplies of Italy's basic foods. Stocks of bread, rice and pasta will last for a few days, but the average Italian faces short rations unless the strike is settled quickly.

Advertising Ban On Red Theatres

Mounties Run Wild, Beat RCAF 85-35; Starlets Win

RCMP hoopers must have been practicing on their target range yesterday because when they hit the RCAF drill hall basketball floor last night they were as hot as a twenty-five cent pistol after 18 rounds.

The men of scarlet poured it to a hapless Air Force quintet and wound up on the long, long end of an 85-35 count in a City Senior Men's basketball league contest.

Starlets dropped Edmonton Teachers' Society 25-19 in a close City Ladies' league game preceding the men's contest.

Scoring was comparatively slow in the first half of the RCAF-RCMP contest with the count resting at 34-16 by halftime. Then things began to pop as the police five pulled out all the stops to rattle home 51 points in the second session while grinding the sky boys with 19.

The victory moved the RCMP over a notch closer to the franchise leading Waterloo Meteors who are undefeated in five games. The RCMP now has a four and one record.

Ray Gilling pulled the red shirt with 25 points and was closely followed by captain Geoff Mortimer with 22. Jim Miles added a useful 17. Ray Crabbe hit for 16 points followed by Bill Hunter with nine.

The women's game was a ding dong affair through the first half with neither team ever gaining much of an edge. When the weather came you couldn't get a zinn between the 45-45 tie.

Starlets graduated took command in the second half and were able to establish a four-point bulge that meant the ball game.

Glenn Watson pulled the Starlets with eight points, while Willie Wattie and Stella Noel split 12 points for the leaders.

RCMP—Cochran (16), Davies (15), McNeill (12), Martin (10), Gilling (7), Mortimer (7), Moore (7), Hunter (6), Miles (5), Crabbe (4), Total 85.

HERGERT'S LEAFS 'GIANT KILLERS'

NELSON, B.C., Dec. 8.—Coach Fred Hergert, last season with Calgary Stampede of the Western Canada Hockey league, master-minded Nelson Maple Leafs to a hard-fought 3-2 victory over Spokane Flyers here last night. Nelson is in last place in the Western International loop, while Flyers are on top.

Flyers' high scoring trio—McBride, Bill Snider and Cy Rouse—were a potent cut of the scoring column. Hergert Scott swung a kept shot, firing both Spokane goals.

Nelson scorers were Allen, Kilpatrick and Haldane.

Thirty-six minutes in penalties were assessed, including a 10-minute misconduct term to McBride in the final frame. The Flyers centre got the grade for chattering back at referee Al Eberly.

Word from Mercury's camp is that they aren't making the trip for nothing. A win for the locals would put them out in front in the four-team race.

Other league action will see Westkaskin Canadians travelling to Wetaskinaw for a battle with Maroons. The Camrose club has been hot and cold thus far and this could be the time for Westkaskin to come up with victory number one of this young season.

Calgary Workers Join UPWA Union

CALGARY, Dec. 8.—(CP)—Employees at the Union Packing Company plant in Calgary yesterday voted 135 to 127 in favor of the United Packinghouse Workers of America (UPWA) at their bargaining agents. The employees have been members of the Trades and Labor Congress Union. As a result of the vote, held under direction of the Alberta Board of Industrial Relations, it is expected the board now will consider certification of the UPWA as the official union for the plant.

As it stands now, only five of the 14 original entries will go post-wednesday Saturday. W.L. Rance's Stepfather, carrying 13 fewer points than Citation likes the mud. Another lightly-weighted horse, Cash ship club to the horses.

Banquet To Champs

CALGARY, Dec. 8.—(CP)—Members of the Grey Cup champion Stampede were guests of honor at a luncheon held by the Rotary service club Tuesday. Coach Les Leach introduced each member of the Dominion football championship club to the hostesses.

Brewed, looks like a certain starter. So do Happy Issue and Texas Sandman.

Not one of them figures to give the Calumet Comet more than a workout as he guns for his 7th victory in 28 starts.

But the railbirds aren't taking any chances on missing an upset. Tansford is making plans for a record crowd. The track should have one, too. Special places are being in fans from Seattle, Los Angeles, Hollywood, Portland, Salt Lake City, Reno and points east.

JAILED FOR $12 THEFT

He's 'High-Class' Crook But Woman Nabs Him

NEWARK, N.J., Dec. 8.—(UPI)—John L. Sullivan, 51, wanted in Chicago for a $210,000 robbery, said today it was embarrassing to have been caught by a woman detective while stealing a $12 electric razor.

"I'm a high-class crook," he told reporters, "make it a $20 razor."

Sullivan waived extradition to Chicago where he also is wanted for questioning in the slaying of two members of his gang.

The short, glib, Sullivan was arrested in the Kresge department store on Monday by store detective Mrs. Elise Simon, a 22-year-old woman with 22 years experience chasing criminals.

"I believe you have one of our razors in your pocket," she said.

He stood quietly while Mrs. Simon searched him. Then, finding the razor, she called in a patrolman from the street who took him to headquarters.

Although he at first gave a false name in check of Bill Simon, second vice president, that he was the only member at large of a seven-man gang wanted for the $210,000 robbery of the E. H. Rumbold Real Estate Company in Chicago, Jan. 30, 1965.

Finally, admitting his identity, Sullivan denied he had taken part in the robbery.

"I'll bet I spend the rest of my life in jail for it, though," he added.

In the Rumbold robbery, which Chicago police say Sullivan led, a seven-man gang kidnaped Robert C. Rumbold, 52-year-old brother of the owner of the firm and forced him to open a vault from which $200,000 in defense bonds and $100,000 in cash were taken.

The defense bonds were recovered, but the $100,000 was not. Police found $150 in cash on Sullivan when he was arrested. They asked him why he had stolen the razor when he could have bought it.

"Stealing things just is in my blood, I guess," he replied.

Sullivan's record showed that he has spent 16 years in various prisons since 1944 for crimes ranging from larceny to armed robbery.

"What a way to end a career," he said, "arrested by a woman."

Road Commission Proposal Is Made

Construction Officer Lists 5-Point Program

OTTAWA, Dec. 8.—(CP)—Establishment of a Dominion-Provincial highways commission to co-ordinate the financing, planning and construction of main highways in Canada was suggested today by Allan C. Ross of Ottawa, president of the Canadian Construction Association.

In a statement Mr. Ross said the Association feels that establishment of a highways commission would be "the best method of developing a far-sighted national highway program."

The Association, he said, is interested in the Dominion-Provincial conference called for Dec. 11 to discuss construction of the Trans-Canada Highway.

He believed a Dominion-Provincial highways commission could do much to accelerate the development of national highways system by:

1. Co-ordinating highway programs of national importance such as the Trans-Canada Highway, main highways linking Canada with the U.S. and province with province, as well as other roads designed to develop Canada's natural resources and tourist trade and meet strategic requirements.

2. Administering federal funds devoted to aid such projects.

3. Establishing minimum construction standards for the various classes of traffic to be carried, in accordance with strategic needs.

4. Promoting, in conjunction with the National Research Council and other research bodies, research on road materials, soil conditions and the like.

5. Establishing long-term road development policies based on thorough studies of transportation economies, in keeping with the capabilities of the Canadian people.

FOILS HOLDUP

Store Owner Ignores Gun, Saves Cash

VANCOUVER, Dec. 8.—(UPI)—A 25-year-old confectionery store owner last night ignored a bandit's gun, scooped up her cash receipts, and locked herself in a rear room to foil a holdup.

Mrs. B. Oldroyd, who has been held up six times in 10 years, and a "strong-armed" man entered her store on southeast Marine Drive. He asked for some pop. While she was getting it, he flashed a revolver and said: "This is a holdup."

She grabbed a jar containing "some change" and her receipts and fled to her living quarters. When she returned with her son for the bandit had fled with a few packets of cigarettes, some chocolate and chewing gum.

Earlier, last night, a Vancouver taxi driver busted two thugs from his cab after being struck on the head with a metal bolt.

YULE CINDERELLA PLAYS SANTA ROLE

NATCHEZ, Miss., Dec. 8.—(UPI)—A 12-year-old girl, Yule Cinderella, played Santa Claus at a Christmas party here last night.

The little girl, who won many hearts in Natchez last year when she pinned a note to Santa on an expert-trade Christmas tree, last night found herself playing the St. Nick role for Natchez orphans.

Part of the ceremonies at the banquet in city auditorium included recorded greetings from New Brunswick officials to the people of Natchez.

Secret Code Looters Hunted by Committee

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(AP)—Congressional spy hunters today stalked two more men accused of looting secret government files of papers which may have let Russia crack the vital diplomatic codes of the United States a decade ago.

The House of Representatives Un-American Activities Committee hopes to track down the pair for questioning in a closed-door session this morning.

Representative Richard Nixon (Tex., Calif.) said the committee is after still a third person for questioning later on. The names of the three, he told reporters, were first mentioned in New York Magazine last night by Whitaker Chambers, admitted former Communist courier.

Time Magazine.

A state department official said it appears from the committee evidence that "foreign nations have had a good hand at these diplomatic codes—and thus members of the House group suggested that one of the possible names, James Earl Ray, be included in the list of the others potentially included in the list.

As the spy inquiry supplies more copies were microfilmed.

Agriculture Price Cuts Seen Likely

Reduction For Surpluses Possible, Convention Told

OTTAWA, Dec. 8.—(CP)—Dean A. M. Shaw, chairman of the domain-provincial agricultural conference, said yesterday Canadian farmers must realize that the domain is out of the war period and that they may have to accept lower prices for their surpluses.

Summing up discussion at yesterday's second session of the three-day conference, he said delegates seemed to be agreed that agriculture was facing an immediate future which may bring very serious conditions.

"There was a feeling of uncertainty and a vagueness about the long view," he said.

POSITION SOUND

"We must realize that we are out of the war period. We have an agricultural industry that has become highly organized, and our farmers are in a stronger position than they have been in the memory of many of us here."

Agriculture was faced with the prospect of lower prices and might have to accept them, Canada was troubled about some

COYOTE, NOT WOLF AT DOOR, 3 FINED

SASKATOON, Dec. 8.—(CP)—In these days of high prices, it's tough enough keeping the wolf from the door. But when somebody puts a coyote right at your door, Magistrate B. M. Wakeling thinks it's going too far—even if the coyote is dead.

Three Saskatoon boys recently left a dead coyote, frozen in a life-like position, standing at the back door of a fellow student, a girl, thinking they'd have some fun.

As a result, the trio were each fined $5.30 in police court here yesterday for "causing a disturbance and incommoding other persons."

Magistrate Wakeling said the fine should make them realize that practical jokes were not always in good taste, and in this case, a nervous person might suffer serious consequences from the fright.

Taxes Being Paid

CALGARY, Dec. 8.—(CP)—454,000 taxpayers have paid up $411 million of the current taxes and interest due on city property in the city of Calgary. More than $412,000 has been collected to date, he said.

At the same time, he cautioned farmers against producing a surplus in an effort to compete in the U.S. market. The American new year was developing a lean hog along Canadian lines and this may be an advantage to Canadians. He felt prices paid by the gov't were low.

U.S. Dollars Pouring Into Tito's Coffers

BELGRADE, Dec. 8.—(AP)—Millions of United States dollars are pouring into Yugoslavia to help finance Premier Tito's program of rehabilitation and socialist construction.

A report in the Yugoslav Communist party newspaper Borba revealed that a huge supply of contributions of money and supplies reaching Yugoslavia still come from residents and organizations in the United States.

American contributions in the last three years were listed at $15,500,000. In addition, more than $1,000,000 worth of medical supplies, mobile tuberculosis clinics, trucks and street sprinklers have come from the United States through the Yugoslav Red Cross.

The contributions from the United States are constantly from individual citizens and from the Yugoslav government-in-exile in London in 1945.

They also do not include the estimated millions of dollars which stream in constantly from individual citizens and from the Yugoslav government-in-exile in London in 1945.

Postal officials in Belgrade estimate that more than 30 per cent of the packages received in Yugoslavia last year came from abroad.

Appeals Are Filed In Narcotic Cases

CALGARY, Dec. 8.—(CP)—Norman and Robert Curly, arrested from Burnaby, B.C., yesterday filed notices of appeal against conviction and post-punishment terms in charges under the Narcotic Drug Act.

Norman Curly was convicted last Nov. 9 and sentenced to six years in the Prince Albert penitentiary on a charge of selling drugs. He also was fined $1,000 or in default to serve a further 12 months. Robert Curly was sentenced to three years in penitentiary last Nov. 10 when convicted on a charge of being in possession of drugs.

Egg Surplus Brings Price Listing Down

By Bea Thrift

Fresh word from the fresh egg hucksters brings happy tidings of a reduction in the price of eggs.

Latest drop should bring the retail price of Grade A large eggs down to 55c-57c.

This is a nice appreciable change from the 68c per dozen of a month ago.

Cause for this reduction is a world of rapidly rising prices in the old law of supply and demand. Even a seasonal surplus has pushed the supply way ahead of the demand for eggs at 68c per dozen... and that's not hard.

We have to have our fresh eggs... but there are a powerful lot of ways of cutting down the number of eggs used.

But this is certainly a ray of sunshine... the price drop I mean.

Every day is Ladies' Day with us.

Let tomorrow be Ladies' Day with us... to devote this column to gift suggestions for the great, big, almost husbandless holiday.

So I hope you have your pennies, shells and even dollars saved and tucked away in the old egg bowl... just for something special for Christmas.

But for the nonce we'll rest for a word about Christmas decorations... and how dreadfully expensive they are.

Once upon a time you could buy a bunch of tinsel, half a dozen silver stars, a fat angel, a hearty Santa Claus, an artificial pine tree or a host of other things for your Christmas tree.

Now... you pay a whole dollar for a silver star or a fat angel... and just try to get something else for the same price.

Decorations have become plentiful this year than they have been for some time. But how many of us can afford to pay 50c for one... even if it does look like a Christmas tree.

Oh well... I suppose they're in line with everything else.

I find nothing more frustrating than trying to accurately measure molasses and syrup.

So much always manages to stick to the measuring cup... and so on.

But in the true tradition of a great Canadian housewife... I accidentally struck this happy solution to my problem.

If you pour molasses or syrup into a well-oiled container for measuring... it will then roll out without sticking.

One luxury item I must mention buy and tuck on the pantry shelf is a tin of fancy red pimento... for 30c.

Pimento does such wonderful things for salads, sandwiches and garnishes.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS—

Marriage Is Job For Two People

DEAR MISS DIX: We are always being told about it being the duty of mothers to train their daughters to be good wives.

Inasmuch as marriage is a 50-50 proposition, why isn't it the duty of fathers to prepare their sons to be good husbands?

After all it takes two people to make a marriage a success. Neither can do it alone and unaided. It is a two-handed job.

So why don't parents try to teach their sons how to be good husbands as well as their daughters how to be good wives?

A READER: ANSWER: Apparently parents are so busy that they don't have time to do it. It is a two-handed job.

So why don't parents try to teach their sons how to be good husbands as well as their daughters how to be good wives?

After all it takes two people to make a marriage a success. Neither can do it alone and unaided. It is a two-handed job.

The working girl who takes her lunch will find it easy to plan a reducing diet.

WHY GROW OLD

Lunch-Carrying Girls Can Plan Reducing Diet

By Josephine Lowman

This week I am writing about the woman in business and her particular problems as compared to the woman in the home.

The woman in the home has an easier job of reducing than the woman who carries her lunch in a restaurant. Many housewives would disagree with this statement because they would say, "It's hard for me because I have to cook for the family." That is true if you entirely

You can cook for your family, and use almost the same grocery list and still reduce. You simply must eat your apple raw rather than baked, with trimming, your pork baked rather than creamed, your meat lean rather than with fat and gravy, and salad dressings must be restricted or discarded for lemon juice.

You DO have the temptation of picking up snacks at home but you DO NOT have to do this. The woman who carries her lunch must cook from home, de-fatted meats, fresh vegetables and salads. Special orders are expensive and the most reasonable prices are attached to plate lunches where the woman has no extra-order the above-mentioned factors.

Also, the woman who eats away from home is faced with vitamin deficiency since vegetables are prepared in large amounts and the mineral and vitamin-rich water is often poured off.

If you eat at home morning and night but take your lunch, you can reduce and still be well satisfied. A lean meat or cheese sandwich, without mayonnaise but with mustard, gives you only around 250 calories. A few raw carrots or fresh fruit and little milk and you can do the trick.

If you do not wish to cook meat at home, you can buy a slab of roast beef or a small broiled steak or fish at noon and stand at your vending stand for green salads and vegetables.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Adopted Child Can Be Spared Unhappiness

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

When we recognize that children can be cruel and thoughtless and make life miserable for other children, then we do well not to furnish them with the material for such persecution.

It is the child who is in any different from the average who has to be helped to develop a thick skin so that he may not be made too unhappy for him. It takes years for children to learn appreciation for human suffering, because what has not been experienced is difficult to imagine.

It is well to tell the adopted child that he is not necessary to inform the neighbors or their children (one child I knew was saved from becoming a neurotic when her mother, shortly moved out of the school district. The group with whom she had grown up, led her constantly with not being a "new" child.

The fact that there has been a divorce in a family need not be aired to the small fry. They do not understand the reason for these changes in human relationships and so are in no position to evaluate them. The mother is right who explains to her 3-year-old child that her friend's Daddy works complete else and only gets home occasionally. Some day she'll know why, at this age this euphemistic explanation satisfies her.

There is also the possibility that she would be saved, actually, because she might assume that if it happened to her friend it could also happen to her.

"Is There A Santa?" may be a leaflet that will help you decide how to answer this question. Now I'm not a Santa Claus, but I'm a mother who has a 3-year-old child who is a Santa Claus.

There is also the possibility that she would be saved, actually, because she might assume that if it happened to her friend it could also happen to her.

Wool Frocks Flattering For Mid-Winter Attire

Wool comes into its own in a winter review of fabrics and fashions portrayed in Canadian woollens and worsteds. Practically designed for winter needs, models include a clever choice of well-tailored clothes in an appealing range of colors for street, sport, travel and indoor wear.

A flattering dressmaker suit of grey worsted in birdseye weave featured a double-breasted jacket and pencil skirt. Black velvet collar and buttons lent a touch of distinctive femininity.

Costs were half flared and fitted. A brown plaid with contrasting over-check was used for a casual coat with full back falling from a fitted collar, patch pockets and the higher collar. A one-sleeve skirt of plaid matching green sweater were worn underneath the coat. Donagel's velvet of neutral tone flecked with white was fashioned into a long-filled, cushion-styled coat, with the patch pockets, wide revers and generous porting below a half belt.

This winter designers have ex-celented themselves with smart after-fine frocks and practical, flattering, wool dresses. A smart winter dress features a shimmering shawl-collared neckline, a sleek slim front and the new neck. It swings out so prettily as it walks away. No belt—instead a smooth midriff and in back a sharp dip.

The back is the important thing about another of this season's frocks. It's slim at front, as are most walk-away dresses. The flounce starts low there, and then rises with a swoop.

Gift Wrapping Fun For Santa's Helpers

Pretty Paper, Ribbons Plus Use Of Imagination Makes Attractive Gift

You can make a little Christmas gift yield a lot of fun for the recipient, if you'll let your sense of humor go when you wrap up your packages.

To turn a bird cage into an amusing package, for example, hook it with Scotch tape patterned with a Christmas design. Glue the tape from top to bottom of the cage to make festive strips. After packing this any container with a carrying gift, tie the handle of the cage with a trim from box of Christmas ribbons.

You might make an intriguing carry-all for a flock of gifts to a family, by using a mesh orange bag.

All that you need to do is to conceal the only visible trademark on the bag with a banding of Christmas wrapping paper and ribbon. The ribbon may be tied to make a bow. Anchor the festive band securely in the bag with heavy parent strips of Scotch tape.

A shiny new cheese grater and as a container, for example, for a pair of nylon stockings or a pretty new handkerchief is certain to suit a smile from the recipient.

Make the cheese grater worthy of bow.

its contents by encircling its draining surface with strips of festive tape. Stud the grater with gold star stickers and tie the handle with an enormous bow of red cellophane ribbon.

A cardboard hat box is fun to cover with odds and ends of Christmas wrapping paper or left-over wallpaper in handsome plaid or striped designs.

After paper is cut out to fit and is neatly pasted over a hat box, pack with gifts and tie the lid tight with Christmas ribbon.

If you want a really distinctive wallpaper pattern for wrapping a conventional box, use as many clever package designers do one of the new wood patterns which reproduce color, grain or bark with realistic effects.

A box wrapped in one of these distinctive papers will further reflect your originality if you'll border the package with loops of colored Scotch tape and will use more of the same to make a centre bow.

Evicted Film Ignored Reims Surrender

Soviets Herald Only Berlin Ratification

This is a condensed translation of Dwight D. Eisenhower's "Crusade in Europe." It contains highlights of the book published by Doubleday & Company. Copyrighted by Doubleday & Company, Inc.

Chapter XXVI
Under the terms of the surrender document the heads of the German armed services were required to appear in Berlin on May 7 to sign a ratification in the Russian headquarters. This was, as we all know, the day when the symbol of the unity of the Western Allies and the world, the surrender was made to all, not merely to the Western Allies. For this reason we were directed to withhold news of the first signing until the second could be accomplished.

In order that American and British newspapers could have the full story of the Reims surrender, we invited a number to be present at the ceremony. In accepting the invitation they agreed to withhold publication until the story could be officially given out under the agreements among the Allies.

One American reporter published the story before the release hour, which infuriated other newsmen who kept faith. The incident created a considerable furor, but in the outcome no real harm was done, except to other publications.

The Western Allies were invited to sign at Reims, but I felt it inappropriate for me personally to go. The Germans already appeared in the Allied Headquarters to accept their unconditional surrender and I thought the ratification in Berlin should be a Soviet affair. Consequently I designated my deputy, Air Chief Marshal Tedder, to represent me at that ceremony.

RED FILM
Some months later I saw in Moscow a movie film portraying the highlights of the Berlin ceremony. No mention was made in the film of the prior surrender at Reims.

We had no local victory celebrations of any kind, then or later. When Jodi signed we merely went to bed for some hours, and then got up the next day and tackled the multitude of tasks that followed upon the cessation of hostilities.

Thereafter, however, all our work was done in the satisfying knowledge that the campaign in Europe had ended. Our problems were difficult but we were spared casualty lists.

The most intricate and pressing of our immediate problems was the redeployment of our troops. There were, in the great Allied Force, more than 3,000,000 Americans under my command. These forces included sixty-one United States divisions, of which had participated in actual battle.

Men with the longest battle service were to be assigned to occupation duty or sent home. Others were to go on to the Pacific. Many of our divisions were veterans of eleven months' continuous fighting, while some, among them the 1st, 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th Infantry Divisions, and the 2nd Airborne, had entered the war in the Mediterranean campaign. The older ones had fought with only brief interruptions for two and a half years. The 34th Infantry and 1st Armored Divisions, still in the Mediterranean theater, had been there since the beginning.

To make necessary adjustments required wholesale transfers from many of the veteran divisions and the filling of vacancies by men with shorter battle service. At the same time we had to be extremely careful to provide for the needs of units to have sent to the Pacific whole divisions of near recruits who had been trained.

Our administrative machine in Europe had already appeared in reverse. Bases, fields, depots, ports, roads, and railways were geared up to push men and supplies forward into the heart of Germany. They had, figuratively, to face about and begin operating in the other direction.

Supplies and munitions were scattered throughout western Europe and through much of Italy and northern Africa. These had to be collected, inventoried, packaged and shipped, much as they were the primary consideration.

So vast and urgent was this single undertaking that we set up a special headquarters with no other responsibility than to guide, supervise and expedite the movement that headquarters was formally established on April 5, a full month before the German surrender.

For every man the experience was inspiring, cordial, and hospitably poured out upon those who brought the people of the United States were overwrought.

During the months succeeding the war, I went to various European capitals for similar celebrations. Among them London, Paris, Brussels, The Hague, and Prague. Other invitations I found it impossible to accept. My first visit to Moscow and Warsaw did not involve "victory celebrations."

By agreement on the political level, SHAEP went out of existence on July 14 to mark the occasion of a final message of thanks and good-bye to the entire command.

For the first time in three years I ceased to be an Allied commander. Thereafter my responsibilities were American.

Preliminary agreements for a final meeting of the Allied Command were made.

concerned. It continued to grow until the moment I left Europe in November, 1945. That friends were a personal and individual thing and unfortunately was not representative of a general attitude.

General Eisenhower received an "astounding proposition" from President Truman at the Potsdam conference in July, 1945, in terms with which the conference was primarily concerned.

morrows' installment of "Crusade in Europe" he describes this episode, which has an important bearing on recent political developments. He also discusses his reaction to the atomic bomb, as well as to the post-war prob-

SINGING REMARKABLE
Because of the marshal's hostess gesture toward his allies I regretted my inability to stay. The singing of the Red Army chorus, which was a most remarkable and able high with Russian melodies, before I left Marshal Zhukov announced that he had just received a message from Moscow instructing him with the approval of Generalissimo Stalin, to confer upon Field Marshal Montgomery and me the Russian Order of Victory, a Soviet decoration that had never previously been given to a foreigner. The marshal asked me when I should like to have the decoration presented and I invited him to wait my headquarters at Frankfurt for the ceremony.

WARM WELCOME
I invited Zhukov to bring to the ceremony at Frankfurt a number of staff assistants and to stay as long as he desired with the success of a warm welcome. He replied that he would come on June 19 and would be accompanied by no more than ten staff officers, but could stay for the day only. Consequently I planned a quiet luncheon for him and his party.

Just a few hours before his arrival I received a telegram saying that in addition to the ten staff officers he was bringing five officer body guards. An officer body guard was a functionary of whom I had never heard, and I was somewhat puzzled as to what to do with five at a luncheon.

We met Zhukov at the airport with a guard of honor and the United States Army Band and we then, with an interpreter, got into my car for the trip back to headquarters. I promptly brought up the question of the proper place for officer bodyguards at a luncheon for the ceremony.

I told him that he could have them seated immediately around him, standing behind him, or at the far end of the table. When I told him that I had no objection to his placing them wherever he pleased, I brought them along because I was told to do so.

The luncheon at Frankfurt was a great success. It was a beautiful room, standing behind him, or at the far end of the table. When I told him that I had no objection to his placing them wherever he pleased, I brought them along because I was told to do so.

ORNA TE DESIGNS
The decorations presented to Montgomery and me were among the greatest gifts I have ever received. They were not only beautiful, but they were also a symbol of the friendship between the United States and the Soviet Union. The decorations were presented to me by the Soviet Union, and they were a symbol of the friendship between the United States and the Soviet Union.
